1. Background to the Promotion of Access to Information Act

- 1.1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the "Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the "Constitution") of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 1.2. In terms of section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual ("PAIA Manual").
- 1.3. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and / or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body

2. The SA Promo Group (Pty) Ltd

- 2.1. TPG imports, outsources, manufactures, and distributes branded and unbranded promotional products and corporate clothing. The product range is diverse as any items that can be branded become subliminal advertising tools which are used to promote their clients' corporate identity, products, and or service offering. TPG is an online company relying heavily on direct email marketing and social media campaigns to generate leads and orders.
- 2.2. This PAIA Manual of TPG is available at its premises: Building 805, Hammets Crossing Business Park, 1 Selbourne Road, Johannesburg North, 2188, as well as on its website, <https://thepromogroup.co.za/>

3. Purpose of the PAIA Manual

- 3.1. The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within TPG by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2. In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

- 3.3. Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- 3.3.1. Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- 3.3.2. Commercial confidentiality; and
- 3.3.3. Effective, efficient and good governance.

and in a manner which balances that right which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

- 3.4. This PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of guide mentioned in section 10 of the Act and recognises that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its regulations by private and public bodies.

 Although we have used our best endeavours to supply a list of applicable legislation, it is possible that this list may be incomplete. Whenever it comes to our attention that existing or new legislation allows a Requester access on a basis other than as set out in PAIA, we shall update the list accordingly. If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation listed above or any other legislation, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request in light thereof.*

10.2. It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this PAIA Manual.

11. Detail to Facilitate a Request for Access to a Record of The SA Promo Group (Pty) Ltd (Section 51(1) (e))

11.1. The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.

11.2. The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or email address as noted in clause 5 above.

- 11.3. The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:
 - a. the record or records requested; and
 - b. the identity of the requester.
- 11.4. The requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address of fax number of the requester in the Republic;
- 11.5. The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right (section 53(2)(d)).
- 11.6. TPG will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 11.7. The requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 11.8. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer (section 53(2)(f)).
- 11.9. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 11.10. The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.
- 11.11. All information as listed in clause 11 herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

12. Refusal of Access to Records

- 12.1. Grounds to Refuse Access;
A private body such as TPG is entitled to refuse a request for information.
 - 12.1.1. The main grounds for TPG to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- a. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;
- b. mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory, or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;
- c. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains:
 - i. trade secrets of the third party;
 - ii. financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - iii. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to TPG, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 12.1.2. The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as TPG, which may include:
 - a. trade secrets of TPG;
 - b. financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of TPG;
 - c. information which, if disclosed could put TPG at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - d. a computer program which is owned by TPG, and which is protected by copyright;
 - e. the research information (section 69) of TPG or a third party, if the disclosure would disclose the identity of TPG, the researcher, or the subject matter of the research; and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
 - 12.1.3. Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
 - 12.1.4. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.

12.1.5. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

13. Remedies Available When TPG Refuses a Request

13.1. Internal Remedies

TPG does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

13.2. External Remedies

13.2.1. A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief.

13.2.2. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

14. Access to Records Held by TPG

14.1. Prerequisites for Access by Personal/Other Requester;

14.1.1. Records held by TPG may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

14.1.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of XYZ Trading. There are two types of requesters:

a. Personal Requester;

1. A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.

2. TPG will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.
- b. Other Requester;
1. This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.
 2. In considering such a request, TPG will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the information.

TPG is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

15. Prescribed Fees (Section 51 (1) (f))

15.1. Fees Provided by the Act

15.1.1. The Act provides two types of fees, namely;

- a. A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
- b. Access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

15.1.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).

15.1.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

- 15.1.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.
- 15.1.5. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including deciding to make it available in the request form.
- 15.1.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

16. Reproduction Fee

- 16.1. Where TPG has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

A copy of an audio record Per hour or part of an hour reasonably required for such search.	R30,00

Where a copy of a record needs to be posted the actual postal fee is payable.

16.4. Deposits

16.4.1. Where the institution receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester himself/herself and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the requester.

16.4.2. The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.

16.5. Collection Fees

16.5.1. The initial "request fee" of R50,00 should be deposited into the bank account below and a copy of the deposit slip, application form and other correspondence / documents, forwarded to the Information Officer via fax.

16.5.2. The officer will collect the initial "request fee" of applications received directly by the Information Officer via email.

16.5.3. All fees are subject to change as allowed for in the Act and as a consequence such escalations may not always be immediately available at the time of the request being made. Requesters shall be informed of any changes in the fees prior to making a payment.

17. Decision

17.1. Time allowed to Institution.

17.1.1. TPG will, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

17.1.2. The 30 (thirty) day period within which TPG has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than (30) thirty days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of TPG and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.

17.1.3. TPG will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

18. Protection of Personal Information that is Processed by TPG

18.1. Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum Conditions for Lawful Processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA.

18.2. TPG needs Personal Information relating to both individual and juristic persons in order to carry out its business and organisational functions. The manner in which this information is processed and the purpose for which it is processed is determined by TPG. TPG is accordingly a responsible party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the personal information of a Data Subject;

- 18.2.1. is processed lawfully, fairly, and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by TPG, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. TPG must also have a legal basis (for example, consent) to process Personal Information.
- 18.2.2. is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected.
- 18.2.3. will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose.
- 18.2.4. is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected.
- 18.2.5. is accurate and kept up to date.
- 18.2.6. will not be kept for longer than necessary.
- 18.2.7. is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by TPG, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage.
- 18.2.8. is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable. Data Subjects have the right to;
 - (a) be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by TPG. The Data Subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach.
 - (b) know whether TPG holds Personal Information about them, and to access that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this manual.
 - (c) request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained personal information.
 - (d) object to TPG's use of their Personal Information and request the deletion of such Personal Information (deletion would be subject to TPG's record keeping requirements).

- (e) object to the processing of Personal Information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications; and
- (f) complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPI and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his, her or its personal information.

18.3. Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information by the Company

As outline outlined above, Personal Information may only be processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which TPG processes or will process Personal Information is set out in Part 1 of Appendix 2.

18.4. Categories of Data Subjects and Personal Information/special Personal Information relating thereto.

As per section 1 of POPI, a Data Subject may either be a natural or a juristic person. Part 2 of Appendix 2 sets out the various categories of Data Subjects that TPG Processes Personal Information on and the types of Personal Information relating thereto.

18.5. Recipients of Personal Information

Part 3 of Appendix 2 outlines the recipients to whom TPG may provide a Data Subjects Personal Information to.

18.6. Cross-border flows of Personal Information

18.6.1. Section 72 of POPIA provides that Personal Information may only be transferred out of the Republic of South Africa if the:

- (a) Recipient country can offer such data an “adequate level” of protection. This means that its data privacy laws must be substantially similar to the Conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in POPI; or
- (b) Data Subject consents to the transfer of their Personal Information; or
- (c) Transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party; or

- (d) Transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Responsible Party and a third party, in the interests of the Data Subject; or
 - (e) The transfer is for the benefit of the Data Subject, and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Data Subject, and if it were, the Data Subject, would in all likelihood provide such consent.
- 18.6.2. Part 4 of Appendix 2 sets out the planned cross-border transfers of Personal Information and the condition from above that applies thereto.
- 18.7. Description of information security measures to be implemented by TPG
- Part 5 Appendix 2 sets out the types of security measures implemented by TPG in order to ensure that Personal Information is respected and protected. A preliminary assessment of the suitability of the information security measures implemented or to be implemented by TPG may be conducted in order to ensure that the Personal Information that is processed by TPG is safeguarded and processed in accordance with the Conditions for Lawful Processing.
- 19. Objection to the Processing of Personal Information by a Data Subject
- Section 11 (3) of POPI and regulation 2 of the POPIA Regulations provides that a Data Subject may, at any time object to the Processing of his/her/its Personal Information in the prescribed form attached to this manual as Appendix 3, subject to exceptions contained in POPIA.
- 20. Request for correction or deletion of Personal Information
- Section 24 of POPI and Regulation 3 of the POPI Regulations provides that a Data Subject may request for their Personal Information to be corrected/deleted in the prescribed form attached as Appendix 4 to this manual.
- 21. Availability and Updating of the PAIA Manual
- 21.1. Regulation Number R. 187 of 15 February 2002

- 21.2. This PAIA Manual is made available in terms of Regulation Number R.187 of 15 February 2002. XYZ Trading will update this PAIA Manual at such intervals as may be deemed necessary.
- 21.3. This PAIA Manual of TPG is available to view at its premises and on its website.
